Prayer

Guide

Their

Reality

On the last day of camp for teens and youth with disabilities held July 2010 our campers shared:

~ God shows me that He loves my child and me. We are trying to accept Him into our hearts.

~ At camp God showed me that I need to learn more about Him and have faith.

~ We look forward to these camps. Thank you for your patience and love that shows in everything. May God bless all those who took part in organization of this camp.

~ I came to camp confused and depressed. After a day I grew in confidence due to fellowship with such people as you are. I feel I have changed. Thanks to the fellowship with you I have grown kinder. God is showing me the right way and I will follow.

Now our campers are back to their reality. Again, youth and children with disabilities have to bear the labels of crippled and ugly and worthless. Again, they have to fear drunken fathers and husbands and lose spirit from family struggles. Again, they have to face loneliness and seclusion. Pray for these families not to give up, but to remain open to God's work and seek Him and His help.

Prayer

1. Mission to Ukraine celebrates its 13 birthday today. Pray for the Lord to continue to bless, guide, and extend our ministry to fulfill His will and glorify His Name.

2. Meela, Tanya's mother: Pray for God's healing for me and for good relationship between me and my daughter.

In the months to come, Mission to Ukraine staff would love the privilege and joy of praying for you, our wonderful supporters, during our morning devotions. Please send your requests to Tanya at mtuoffice@utel.net.ua or tetianarb@yahoo.com. Let us know if we can include your request in a monthly prayer guide or if you wish to keep this request among the staff only. We look forward to hearing how God works among His faithful.
